

Highlights from the Altarnun Parish Council meeting on Monday, 7th April 2014

Chair Retallack; Vice Chair Dowler and 5 Councillors; Parish Grounds Manager Smart and Parish Projects Officer Parsons and Cornwall Councillor Hall attended the meeting in the Bolventor Reading Rooms.

The Parish Council noted that the dog control order enforcement training had been completed by Mr Smart on 4th April 2014 and reserved the right to implement the licenced skills as and when deemed appropriate. The Spring Clean-up of the parish's public amenities had started with the warmer weather. Everyone was delighted to see the road speed warning signs appear on the A30 exit slip road at Treween which it was hoped might slow drivers down as they entered the hamlet. Councillor Richards gave a brief report back on the ANOB Cornwall's annual general meeting held on 22nd March 2014.

The Council then considered planning application PA14/02100 – concerning the erection of a detached agricultural dwelling with attached single garage on land at Robbins Altarnun Cornwall and raised NO OBJECTION to the proposal.

The Parish Council went on to review listed building consent PA14/02750 and application PA14/02465 for the demolition of existing, and construction of a single storey porch, kitchen and bathroom extension at Lower Trethinna Cottage, Trethinna Hill, Altarnun. Subject to approval being conditional upon the northern elevation being constructed of stone as existing, the Parish Council supported the applications.

Finally the Parish Council raised NO OBJECTION to the application PA14/ 00959 seeking permission to permanently site a static caravan for leisure use on land west of Trewen Mill, Trethinna Hill, Altarnun Launceston.

The next Parish Council meeting will be held on Monday, 12th May 2014, to avoid clash with the bank holiday. It will return to the Altarnun Church Hall. The Chair has invited Mr R Newbury from the Altarnun School to attend to update the parish Council on developments and there may be a speaker representing Mr G Pooley attending the meeting to discuss a potential fresh initiative to develop land on the outskirts of Five Lanes/Trewint for affordable housing. Details have yet to be finalised. As ever all Parishioners are welcome to attend.

Clerk to Altarnun Parish Council – April 2014.
